Joys and Concerns:

- Concern: Judy Clifton shared that three members had recently undergone surgery, and asked that all be kept in our thoughts and prayers: Bonnie Hendrickson, Connie Rathburn and Val Hoffman.
- Concern: Betty Hoppes shared that her mother, Virginia Woods had gall bladder surgery on March 30 and was currently in rehabilitation.
- Concern: Pam Patrick shared that her husband had recently finished radiation treatment for prostate cancer.
- Concern: Susan Happeney shared that her step-father had fallen and fractured his femur; he was being transferred to Logan Elm Rehab.
- Joy: Denise Wright shared that she had completed and brought in many tea towel orders that she had received during the quilt retreat, and that she was still taking new orders - $10/each with 100% donated to Pelotonia for cancer research.

New Business

- Spring Retreat: The Spring Retreat was a wonderful success! Many thank-you's were expressed to both Bonnie Hendrickson and Connie Rathburn for hosting the event and adding their special touches to the get-away! All was very fun and relaxing! (Dates for the next year's event: March 19-21, 2026)
- An Executive Meeting was held. Going forward, all money collected from the July Quilt Show (i.e., Entry Fees, and all Raffle Quilt/Basket, Made By Us Room/Sales Room monies) must be run through the Treasurer; this is due to the fact that the Guild now has an EIN Number with the State of Ohio, and this requires mandatory reporting of income. As a further part of this, there will be no credit card transactions or telephone-based payments accepted. All collected monies will be cash or personal check only.

Old Business:

- Quilt Show:
 - Quilt Entry Forms are due at the June Meeting; please get those in to Robbin Taylor! Per Quilt Show week, quilt entries will be processed in on Monday!
 - There is a sign-up poster on the front table for various shifts for the Quilt Show. As a reminder, all Members are expected to participate and complete 2 shifts!
 - Donations are still needed for Door Prizes; please bring those in to Val Hoffman (or see Judy if Val is absent!).

- Betty Hoppes has volunteered to run the White Glove portion of the Quilt Show! Thank-you, Betty!
- Sales Room Folders are available for $5.00 from Mardee Stover. This year, all Sales Room items must be dropped off on Monday only, 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM of Show Week!
- Cathy Turner shared that Bolts & Quarters would not be vending during the Quilt Show, leaving two vendor spaces open. If anyone has suggestions to fill the spaces, please see Cathy.
- Block of the Month – See Sharon Highfield or Val Hoffman with your completed blocks and to get your next month's patterns!
- Quilt Challenge – See Carolyn Solt if you have questions regarding this year's theme (Baa Baa Black Sheep)!

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting by Grace Daukas; this was seconded by Sharon Highfield. All were in favor; the meeting adjourned.

*Following the close motion and meeting adjournment, Debbie Barber shared that she was removing herself from the Made By Us Room (a replacement for her would be needed!) and would be taking one of the open vendor booths for personal vending.

Program: Joyce Jadwin from Farmer's Country Store!

Respectfully submitted,
Kim Bullinger, Secretary
