

Goodtime Quilters Quilt Guild Minutes

July 10, 2025

The meeting was called to order by President Judy Clifton with 70 members present; visitor Diane Malone had joined the Guild that morning. Judy acknowledged the July Birthday's and thanked all who had brought breakfast treats for the month. She also shared that in August, the Guild Meeting would be again be in the smaller upstairs room by request of the Church; they had construction planned in our first-floor space.

Secretary's Report: There were no questions or changes to the June Minutes. A motion was made by Sue Heinzelman to accept the minutes as stood; this was seconded by Rose Landon. All were in favor; the motion carried.

Treasurer's Report: The June Treasurer's Report was shared by Regina Ghearing as Cheri DelPonte had fallen, broken her arm and was recovering from repair surgery; a get-well soon card was circulated for all to sign. Judy shared that going forward, Regina Ghearing would be standing in for Cheri as Treasurer until further notice. A motion was made by Linda Dozier to accept the minutes as stood; this was seconded by Betty Kleen. All were in favor; the motion carried.

Balance Forward May 31, 2025:	$ 9,465.29
Income:	$ 1328.00
Expenses:	$ 1358.46
Checking Account Balance, May 31, 2025	$ 9,434.83

Joys and Concerns: (*With poor room acoustics and few written on the table sheets, many of these were missed. Apologies!)

- Joy: Barb Harwood's son will soon be a father!
- Joy: Bonnie Hendrickson was finishing her radiation treatments and then would move to infusion treatments through year-end. Also, she would only need four "boosters" through now and year-end.
- Concern: Kathy Shaw was having surgery on July 14.
- Joy: Kim Alley was awarded two Best of Show's at the Pickaway County Fair! Also, JoAnn Azbell's donated T-Shirt quilt was sold for $525 to Ohio Senator, Michelle Reynolds.
- Joy: Sherri Berry sold her house, but it wasn't without struggle. She had to put her dog down, discovered her movers were scamming her, then her new residents were in one day after close and they have turkeys! Ooy! :/

New Business:

- Quilt Show – The number of quilt entries is down so this will be augmented by former Best of Show Quilts. If you have a past Best of Show Quilt, please bring it and your ribbon to Robbin Taylor on Monday, July 21 with your other quilt entries.
- Dana Martinko from the Ross County Historical Society has asked if representatives could sell their Book, Loving Gifts, at the Quilt Show ($29.95 with tax). The book contains historical quilt information for both Ross and Pickaway Counties. If this would be approved, they will provide a book for the Guild Raffle Basket. Joanne Wilshanetsky made a motion to approve his request; this was seconded by Barb Harwood. All were in favor. After the motion, Val Hoffman made the suggestion to locate him away from the other vendors at the Show.
- Website – Much discussion occurred about the future support of the website; cost of the website is approximately $440/year and a three-year contract is expected. A motion was made by Wanda Seimer to keep the website; this was seconded by Corrine Walters. All were in favor; the motion carried. Betty Kleen volunteered to take the administration of the site going forward.
