

Goodtime Quilters Quilt Guild Minutes

March 6, 2025

The meeting was called to order by President Judy Clifton with 60 regularly attending members present. Kathy Farriow, a visitor in February, joined the Guild that morning, and was again introduced. March Birthdays were acknowledged, and Judy thanked all who had brought goodies for breakfast. Also, Judy thanked all who had brought in quilts for donation to Haven House and as gifts for the elderly adults in the Adult Protection Service (APS) program. Judy then transitioned the meeting to Show and Tell.

Secretary's Report: There were no questions or changes to the February Minutes. A motion was made by Sherri Berry to accept the minutes as stood; this was seconded by Judy Burton. All were in favor; the motion carried.

Treasurer's Report: The February Treasurer's Report was shared by Treasurer, Cherie Del Ponte. (The income and expenses represent the shift of monies to a new bank account.) A motion was made by Grace Daukas to accept the minutes as stood; this was seconded by Barb Wagner. All were in favor; the motion carried.

Balance Forward January 31, 2025:	$14,347.86
Income:	$13,772.00
Expenses:	$13,651.95
Checking Account Balance, February 28, 2025	$14,467.91

Joys and Concerns:

- Concern: Debbie Barber shared that Roxanne Finley who had fallen on the ice in February and broken her ankle in three places, was recovering at home and doing well.
- Concern: Debbie further shared that Wanda Seimer's husband was now in a rest home.
- Concern: Judy Clifton shared that her mother had received a new heart valve the day prior and was recovering.
- Joy: Jan Gillum had cataract surgery on March 3 and was doing well!

New Business

- Spring Retreat: With the retreat just weeks away, Connie Rathburn had coupons and a retreat agenda available for all attendees. She also shared that there would be 20 kits available for anyone wishing to make the quilt Plaid-ish, and there would be another 24 kits available to make/donate to the Stitching Sisters for cancer patients. She mentioned that she would have some red-white-blue fabrics available for those wishing to make Quilts of Valor (please bring additional fabric if you have patriotic colors in your stash!) and that there would not be a Mystery Quilt at this year's retreat. Finally, as a treat to all, there would be a Spa Corner, for those wishing to take a moment and relax/pamper! The event officially starts Wednesday, March 19 and runs until 5PM Saturday, March 22, however you may set your machine, etc., up after 5PM on March 18 (no sewing at that time!). One final reminder, please bring long, heavy duty extension cords, if you have them available.

Old Business:

- Raffle Quilt – Raffle Quilt blocks are in progress. If you didn't return yours today, please return them to Debbie Barber in April!
- General reminders: See Mardee Stover for Sales Room Folders, see Debbie Barber for Made By Us Folders and see Val Hoffman for your check-in on your block-of-the-month progress. Also, items are still needed for the raffle; please bring them in!
- Mardee Stover reminded all again that as they come on-site, to please sign-in on the attendance log. She also reminded all that handled paper bags were needed for the Sales Room at the Quilt Show.

Next Meeting: April 4, 2025

Program: Alice Ridge with Alice Ridge Quilts will conduct a trunk show, vend, and host a Sashiko workshop. Kits for this class: $25 per attendee.

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting by Carolyn Solt; this was seconded by Susie Hutt. All were in favor; the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Kim Bullinger, Secretary
